Funeral Care™

It isn't a question of if, but a matter of when.

Advance planning ensures that someone you care about will never have to make all the decisions alone.

Because of love, I leave the following detailed instructions.

Life Review

What has given you the most enjoyment in life? _____

Have you had a guiding personal philosophy about life or a spiritual point of view? _____

Who are your closest friends? _____

Have you been a member of any groups or special activities that were important? If so, what? _____

What type of music do you listen to at home or in the car? _____

Is there anything in life you were disappointed with? _____

Have you ever seen anything done at a funeral that you found objectionable that we should know about?

Why leave the burden of decisions to fall on someone close to you, perhaps alone, with other responsibilities on their mind and most likely on the worst day of their life?

Pre-planning is for the benefit of those you love.

It is a matter of personal choice.
But in the end, we are each remembered either for the things we have done or the things we have not done.

How do you choose to be remembered?
